The friends will observe that the receipts during the month of June were one hundred dollars less than the fixed expenses of the Board. It is the hope of the Secretary that he may yet be able to close the year August 1, without a deficit. What say you, brethren?

Matrimonial

SHOWALTER-SNYDER.—Sister Minnie Showalter and Milton Snyder were united in marriage in the Brethren church at Pony Creek, Kans., April 9, in the presence of a crowded house. The bride is a niece of brother L. S. Bauman and the groom one of our sturdy farmers of Kansas.
Barada, Neb.

SHAFFER-HEIKES.—Miss Etta Shaffer and Henry Heikes were married at the home of the groom on the 29th of May. The marriage was private. Mr. Heikes leaving his place of business and returning immediately after ceremony.

J. W. BURNWORTH.

Falls City, Neb.

COMMERS-ROGER.—At the residence of the bride's parents in Conemaugh, Pa., Daniel Commers and Emma L. Roger were united in holy matrimony by the undersigned.

J. F. KOONTZ.

FELTHOUSE-METZGER.—At the home of the bride's parents, brother and sister John Metzger, Wednesday evening, June 28, at 1104 North Street, at eight o'clock, occurred the marriage of their daughter Mary A. and Mr. Aaron Felthouse. There were about sixty-five guests present. A sumptuous supper was served. The presents were numerous and very useful, some being sent from a distance. The lady attendant was the bride's only sister, the gentleman a brother of the groom. The same evening the newly wedded couple went to their own home, being beautifully furnished, all ready to begin housekeeping. Sister Mary, as all readers of EVANGELIST know is National Secretary of our King's Children work, an office she has held for several years. Mr. Felthouse is a young business man of Elkhart, a very prosperous and industrious gentleman. My prayer is, their wedded life may be a happy one, and may God's choicest blessings be theirs.

COLLIER.—Belva Clara Collier, daughter of Mr. William M. and sister Mary Zarella Collier died June 17, 1899, age 10 years, 8 months and 9 days. Her death was caused by heart failure. She had heart trouble from a baby. Her mother died eight years ago since which time she has lived with her grandmother, she being only two years old at the time of her mother's death. She will be greatly missed by all her friends and especially her grandmother who will feel her loss most of all. She leaves a father and four brothers to mourn their loss besides her relatives and friends. Funeral by Joseph Guthrie, G. B.

L. B. MOSSER.

WEIKER.—Sister Savila S. Coup was born in Washington Co., Md., Dec. 15, 1841. Was married to Peter Weiker May 22, 1879, and died June 22, 1899, aged 57 years, 6 months and 7 days. In the fall of 1889 she became a member of the Brethren church at Fair Haven of which she was a faithful and consistent member. Funeral sermon at Fair Haven by the writer, assisted by Elder P. J. Brown. Sister Weiker was a well informed woman and kind hearted and will be missed not only by her family and neighbors but by all who knew her. She was kind and always had encouraging words for her pastor. She said in her last sickness that she was prepared to die and all was well. Peace be to her ashes and may God bless the bereft friends and help us all to so live that we may meet again beyond the river.

WEYBRIGHT.—Daniel P. Weybright was born in Elkhart county, Ind., Aug. 15, 1850, and died at Sunnyside, Wash., May 31, 1899. He came to Sunnyside, Wash., from Bond, Kan., last November under contract to work for C. Rowland and S. J. Harrison. Being able to do almost all kinds of mechanical work necessary on buildings and farm machinery, also an excellent farmer, horticulturalist and stockman he was just the man for the place he filled. On May 30th he worked as usual, went home, met some of the neighbors and talked with all in his accustomed cheerful manner. He retired at his regular hour and was soon fast asleep. Some time after two o'clock in the morning his wife was awakened by his hard breathing and at once called to him. Getting no response she took hold of him and tried to arouse him in that way, but failing in that she called to her brother who has been living in the family for a number of years to come to the bed. Together they raised Brother Weybright to a sitting posture, but the body was limp and all efforts to restore him to life were unavailing. The writer and a few close neighbors were called to the home of the deceased immediately. I shall never forget the sensation caused by the loud rap and then the words, "Dan Weybright is dead; come up right away." I had to study awhile before I could decide whether I had awakened in the eternal world or what had happened. Upon what a brittle thread is life suspended.

The funeral service was held at Sunnyside school house conducted by the writer assisted by Elders Miller and Eby, and the remains interred in the Outlook cemetery, four miles west of Sunnyside. This is the fifth grave in it and the first of our colony to join the great colony in the spirit world. Brother Weybright was a charter member of the Brethren church and was elected to the office of deacon in the Fairview congregation, Echo, Kans. He was married to Sarah M. Smetzer, Wooster, Ohio, Jan. 5th, 1876 where they continued to reside until August, 1879, when they moved to Goshen, Ind. Here they remained for about five years and then moved to Virden, Ill., where they lived one year and returned to Goshen for one year and then moved to Alfred,

Douglass County, Kan., where they lived four years and again returned to Goshen, Ind., but remained only six months and then returned to Bond, Douglass Co., Kan. They remained here three years and then moved to Glendale, Arizona, which place they left after a sojourn of seven months for California where they spent four years of varying periods at the following places: Santa Paula, Preston, San Migniel, San Jose, St. Helena, Pleasant Valley, Lathrop and Brentwood. In August, 1897, they returned to Bond, Kan. The deceased leaves a wife, three brothers and seven sisters. Brother Weybright was an exemplary man. He will be greatly missed by the colony at Sunnyside and was called away just as he was needed most. May God's choicest blessings go with him and those he left behind.

S. J. HARRISON.

DOUBTT.—At Vinco, on Wednesday, June 14, at about 8 A. M., Earl H., son of brother and sister Daniel Doubtt, age 11 months and 10 days. Funeral service at the house, Thursday the 15th at 10:30 A. M. Interment in Westly Chapel grave yard. Services by the pastor from Revelation 2:10.

Church News

Vinco, Pa.

I have seen no news in the EVANGELIST from this place for sometime, and think a few words of comfort will do us all good. We held our love feast on the 22nd of this month, (June) and felt the Spirit's power very much. We had a fine feast, which I feel safe to say will do us all good. We had six ministering brethren with us, namely, J. F. Koontz, of Conemaugh; E. E. Haskins, Daniel Crawford and Stephen Hildebrand, of Johnstown; Alvin Byers, of Rose-dale, and W. Byers, of Dearmin. Brother Haskins conducted the service at 4 P. M., and Brother Koontz at night. The church is in good working order, and we look forth for a year of prosperity and ingathering of souls. May God grant it so.

H. W. HOLLABAUGH, Pastor.

Wanted

A good Christian home for a bright little boy who is nearly nine years old.

At our State conference held at South Bend, Ind., I was appointed chairman of a committee to look after orphan children. We now have a boy filling the above description whose parents are both dead, leaving him to the mercies of those who will care for him. We so far have been unable to find a place for him. Anyone seeing this notice who thinks or feels they could do more as Jesus would have them do, by taking him to their home will please write to me or any one (if more convenient) of the committee on that work, and they will write to me at once and I will send you his picture and further particulars.

Every day is a Thanksgiving Day. Every morning is a blessing of strength, every evening a bundle of mercies, every night a benediction of peace, for each of God's children! We may not see the angels, or hear the sweep of their wings, but we receive the blessings of their hands.—Rev. Isaac W. Gowen.
